Suspect Held
In Attempted
Home Bombing

ELKTON, Md., Aug. 19 (AP) — Johnnie C. Johnson, 36, of Coiora, Md., is being held on $40,000 bail today in connection with an attempted dynamite bombing of the home of the Cecil County chairman of the NAACP.

State Troopers continued a search today for another man, who escaped Sunday during a police stake-out at the North East home of the NAACP official, McKinley Scott.

Johnson was charged with assault with intent to murder, carrying a concealed weapon and having dynamite in his possession, police said.

Police and FBI agents arrested Johnson near McKinley's home after getting a tip about the bombing attempt. Police said it was the second bombing attempt on McKinley's home. The first was July 25.

Fifteen sticks of dynamite, capped and fused, were recovered several hundred feet from the house.
